A photograph of a garden scene. In the foreground, a path made of small, flat, grey stones leads towards the background. To the right of the path, several large, rounded, moss-covered rocks are visible. Behind the rocks, a cluster of bamboo plants with thin, green stalks and long, narrow leaves grows. The background is softly blurred, showing more greenery. The text "Training memories" is overlaid on the left side of the image in a black, sans-serif font.
